

RICO ABREU RACING ANNOUNCES MULTI-YEAR PARTNERSHIP WITH ARC-ZONE.COM STARTING IN 2024

Vista, CA- Rico Abreu Racing is proud to announce its multi-year partnership with Arc-Zone.com for the 2024 race season and beyond. Arc-Zone.com, the number one source for all things metal fabrication, delivers pro-grade welding supplies and accessories to customers worldwide.

“I’m thrilled to partner with Arc-Zone.com” said Rico Abreu, owner and driver of Rico Abreu Racing. “Their expertise in metal fabrication is second to none, and having access to their pro-grade tools and premium brands will give us an edge in the upcoming season. We’re excited to see what we can accomplish with their support.”

Arc-Zone.com has been in business for 25 years. The company was founded by Jim Watson, a welding industry veteran who saw a need for high-quality welding products and services to be easily available online. Today, Arc-Zone.com is known for its innovative welding equipment, accessories, and supplies, as well as its commitment to customer service.

One of the things that sets Arc-Zone.com apart is its focus on innovation. The company works to develop new products that meet the evolving needs of the metal fabrication industry. Arc-Zone.com’s team of experienced welders and engineers work closely with customers to understand their challenges and provide solutions that deliver improved weld quality and lower costs.

In addition to its product offerings, Arc-Zone.com is also known for its exceptional customer service. The company’s knowledgeable and friendly staff are always available to answer questions and find the right tools for fabricators to get the job done right. Whether you’re a seasoned welder or a DIY enthusiast, Arc-Zone.com has the expertise and resources you need to Weld like a Pro™.

Jim Watson, Arc-Zone.com founder, echoed Abreu's enthusiasm. "We're excited to be partnering with Rico Abreu Racing," said Watson. "Our businesses go hand in hand and we look forward to supporting the race team with the tools they need to get to the next level. We are excited to see what the future holds."

Arc-Zone.com has been supporting the metal fabrication trade since 1998 and is a trusted source for welding supplies and accessories. With their expertise and pro-grade products, Rico Abreu Racing is poised for a successful season.
